JUDGE GOULD GUEST OF HONOR. Banquet Given by Local Chapter of Phi Delta Phi. Justice Ashley M. Gould of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia was the guest of honor at a banquet given last Saturday evening at the New Willard by Marshall Chapter of the Phi Delta Phi-the Greek letter fraternity of the law schools. During the evening, which proved a thoroughly enjoyable one, Mr. Willis Van Devanter, recently appointed a circuit judge, was initiated as a member of the fraternity.

Justice Gould was welcomed by Dr. Chas.

W. Needham, who said, in part:
"The first name on the toast list this evening is that of our guest of honor, a man whom we all love and honor, a man who has distinguished himself in the practice of the law, a man who stands high in the profession at his age, a man who has distinguished himself as a legal educator, for I believe it to be true from all I have heard, and I have heard a great deal, that he is and has been in every way successful in that work. Not only has he been called into a wider field, wider in opportunities for doing good, but he has kept in that high position the good wall of every one who has observed his ability, and I am sure every man at this bar, and it is a great pleasure to me to introduce as our guest of honor Justice Ashley M. Gould

In responding Mr. Gould said: "In no formal words of thanks I desire to express my great appreciation of the honor hat has been done me this evening by this unat has been done me this evening by this very delightful banquet and this very delightful assemblage of friends. There is something about the membership of the bar which is ordinarily cold and practical, but which, as a man grows older, he appre-ciates as a deep and living sentiment, and I think that those present will agree with me when I say that that feeling grows with a man as he grows older at the bar. "There is no profession where men are weighed as accurately and estimated as ustly by their fellows as that of the bar. Neither in the theological nor medical pro-fessions is there the esprit that maintains grown up a bar of any size. Men touch elbows in friendly companionship and meet in the court room and at the council chamber and form their respect for each other and become wielded together in a common freemasonry and contract a strong appre-ciation of the good will of their fellows." Mr. Foster R. Greene was then introduced as toastmaster, and he called on the fol-lowing for remarks on the topics mentioned: Mr. Willis Van Devanter, "Acceptance;"

Mr. William F. Adams, "Active Chapter; Mr. Fritz von Briesen, "The Alumni;" Mr. A. A. Birney, "Reminiscences;" Mr. J. M. Chamberlain, "The Phi Delta Phi Spirit;" Mr. J. T. Hendrick, "The Lawyer in Business;" Mr. H. Prescott Gatley, "Phi Delta Phi to the Lawyer;" Mr. Robert W. Wells, "The Lawyer in Politics." The attendance included H. Prescott Gatley, Morven Thompson, J. H. Ballinger, Ormsby McHarg, Samuel Herrick, E. B. Kimball, George B. Cuyler, Foster R. Greene, A. A. Birney, J. M. Chamberlain, Fritz von Briesen, John Thilman Hendrick, James L. Norris, jr., Robert Scott Hume, William H. Batting, Alan O. Clephane, Frank H. Hitchcock, G. H. Johnston, Walter S. stricken with paralysis in his store last Saturday night, is reported to be still serious, but the physicians at the Emergency Hospital state that the chances for his recovery are favorable. He is still in a semiconscious state. Mr. Parker was busy in the store all day

Saturday, and seemed to be in excellent spirits, showing no signs of illness. About ten minutes before 9 o'clock he started to rise from his chair, when he fell forward. Mr. Johnson, the window trimmer, was standing near by and caught him before he struck the floor. It was at once discovered that Mr. Parker was unconscious, and a carriage was im-mediately called and the stricken man was mediately called and the stricken man was driven to the Emergency Hospital. Dr. Harry T. Harding, the family physician, reached the hospital a short time afterward. Mr. James E. Rosenthal, another member of the firm, and Mr. Henry Sheckels, manager of the store, had come to the hospital in the carriage.

Dr. Dunn, assistant resident physician, pronounced Mr. Parker in a very serious condition. When Dr. Harding arrived a condition. When Dr. Harding arrived a consultation was held, and it was determined that a blood vessel of the brain had burst on the left side, thus rendering that side of the body paralyzed. Later another consultation was held, at which Dr. Cashman and Dr. W. P. Carr participated, and the diagnosis of the former consultation onfirmed.

Mr. Parker is about fifty years of age, and his family reside at 1541 Park street. He has been engaged in business in Washington over twenty years.

Formal Opening of New Store. A large representation of the feminine population of Washington evidenced considerable interest in the formal opening of the new store of M. Philipsborn & Co., at 610 11th street northwest, which occurred today. In Memoriam.

DICK. In sad but loving remembrance of our be-loved mother. FRANCES DICK, who died two years ago today, March 2, 1901. Sleep on beloved. Sleep, and take thy rest. BY HER DAUGHTERS.

EIMER. Departed this life one year ago today— March 3, 1902—MATILDA EIMER. "One year ago today, dear wife, One year ago today, I stood beside your dying bed And saw you pass away.

"An angel stood there, too, dear wife,
To guide you to your home—
That home of blessed peace and rest,
That home you justly won."
BY HER DEVOTED HUSBAND. "Farewell, our mother dear; We have spent one sad and lonely year. You left us with an aching heart

The day that you from us did part."

BY HER DAUGHTERS. "Rest on, dear mother, thy labor is o'er; Your willing hands will toll no more. A faithful mother, both true and kind— A truer mother you could not find." BY HER SONS.

GARCIA, In loving remembrance of my dean wife and our mother, LAURA R. GARCIA, who died one year ago today, March 2, 1902. Gone, but not forgotten. BY HUSBAND AND CHILDREN.

"Loved in life; remembered in death."
